

Guest Arrival Risk Assessment

1. Are you currently suffering from any of the following?

- High fever (>37.5 degrees Celsius)
- Continuous cough
- Loss of taste or smell

If you have any of the above symptoms:

- If you live alone, stay at home for 10 full days from the day after your symptoms started.
- If you live with others and you or one of them have symptoms, then all household members must stay at home and not leave the house for 10 full days (unless you have been fully vaccinated in the UK with an MHRA approved vaccine). The 10-day period starts from the day after the first person in the house became ill. For anyone in the household who starts displaying symptoms, they need to stay at home for 10 full days from when the symptoms appeared, regardless of what day they are on in the original 10-day isolation period

After the isolation period, if the person feels better and no longer has a high temperature, they can return to their normal routine. If they have not had any signs of improvement and have not already sought medical advice, they should contact NHS 111 or online at 111.nhs.uk

2. Have you come into close contact with anyone who have been suspected of having COVID-19 Virus or presented with the same conditions above?

- No
- Yes (Please specify)

3. Are you required to quarantine on arrival? You will need to quarantine unless:

- a. You are arriving from the UK, Ireland, Channel Islands or Isle of Man; or
- b. You are arriving from a country that is not on the 'red list' and have been fully vaccinated with an approved vaccine as outlined by the UK government.

- Yes, I am required to quarantine
- No, I am not required to quarantine
- I'm not sure if I need to quarantine (Please specify destination arrived from) _____

If you have answered yes to the above, you are required to quarantine for a period of 10 full days from your date of entry to England unless you have opted into the Test to Release Scheme.

If you experience symptoms, are advised to isolate or test positive for COVID-19 during your stay, please inform us immediately via guestrelations@portlandbrown.com
